Demo Reel Breakdown

- I am responsible for all character animation on this reel
- Shots 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, and 9 animated at Bent Image Lab in Portland, OR using Autodesk 3dStudio Max
- Shots 4 and 8 animated at Hinge Digital in Portland, OR using Autodesk Maya

1. Apple Jacks • Taken

Hand-tracked Apple to a live-action leg. Believe it or not, those creases where Apple grabs were already there! Perfect!

2. Ensure • Nutrition In Charge

I loved scaring the daylight out of those corndogs.

3. Koodo • Tree

Lots of crazy straight-ahead animation and constraining to get the axe to behave itself, but I think El Tabador is quite skilled with it, don't you?

4. Carrington College • Squirrel

Aww... this poor guy looks so very sad!

5. Apple Jacks • Taken

Yes, Apple actually gets a little 'excited' when he sees the bin of apples. blush

6. Koodo • Compact

El Tabador has such a huge personality; small guy + big poses = tons of animation fun!

7. Ensure • Nutrition In Charge

A stranger in an airport actually quoted this line to me; "I see you cupcake!" That made my day like you wouldn't believe!

8. Carrington College • Squirrel

Our frightened squirrel friend is back- but this time he has two avian coaches to help him be brave.

9. Koodo • Compact

A little creepy? Sure. But seriously, there's no one El Tabador won't try his moves on.
